Annie Lennox, Smithereens

I saw your picture
It made me sorry
For all the things I never said
It seems that you have cause to worry
It seems that you don't wish me well

Behind the victim
Behind the trouble
Are all the things you've not expressed
I see you standing behind your mother
I see you hiding behind her dress

So don't make me sad
Don't take me down
I couldn't stand to watch you fall
'Cause everybody has a tender heart
Remember this
I didn't mean to break it down to smithereens
Woah ho
Yeah

I heard you crying
I learned the story
I saw the shadows behind the past
They fall behind you and creep up slowly
You're only human behind the mask

So don't take me down
I couldn't stand to watch you fall
'Cause everybody has a broken heart
Remember this
I couldn't stand to break it down to smithereens
Woah ho
Yeah

And you say everybody is an island of their own
And you say everybody has a tender heart
Remember this
I couldn't bear to break it down to smithereens
Woah ho
Yeah

I didn't mean to break it down
I didn't mean to smithereens
I didn't mean to break it down
I didn't make the smithereens

Everybody is an island to themselves
Everybody is an island to themselves
Pick it up pick it up
Everybody is an island to themselves
Pick it up
Don't you know
Hey yeah yeah
Hey yeah yeah
