Ariana Grande, Only 1

I want you, I want you
I want you, I want you
I want you, I want you

Let me introduce myself
Let me introduce myself
Let me introduce myself

Lookin' in your eyes, makes me wonder how
I got so much time, with you and there's more around
I know all the competition that's after you
So I get to thinking, is this to good to be true

That we're living
In a fairytale no malice and no lies baby oh, it's hard to believe
All the love I have to get is only mine
That's how I know

I can't, be your, only one
No I can't, be your only one
Cause you look twice as good as anyone I ever met
And your love is three time better, how could anyone forget
No I can't

I can't, be your, only one
No I can't, be your only one
Cause you look twice as good as anyone I ever met
And your love is three time better, how could anyone forget
No I can't

As I'm layin' down, with you every night
It still gets to me, that you remain by my side
I ain't saying that I'm not deservin' of you
But I was dreaming, bigger than I ever knew when

I wished for living
In a fairytale no malice and no lies
So baby oh, it's hard to believe
All the love you have inside is only mine
That's how i know

I can't, be your, only one
No I can't, be your only one
Cause you look twice as good as anyone I ever met
And your love is three time better, how could anyone forget
No I can't

I can't, be your, only one
No I can't, be your only one
Cause you look twice as good as anyone I ever met
And your love is three time better, how could anyone forget
No I can't

Only 1
Be your only 1
Only 1
