Alter Bridge, Watch Your Words

Watch your words or your words might drown you and cure my wounds and the light will blind you to truly see well you must have faith

oh the righteous they can't wait
a saving grace that all we know
let us pray
let us hold on

I can't breath
I prefer to find a ceiling to this hate of mine
I can't win
I can't fight no more I'm drowning
and I'm sick inside...
Push no more and the day will find you Speak no truth and your ways will end you

It's alright and you must move on Though the damage has been done Cherish the life and the ones you hold
Can you change?
Can you go on?

I can't breath
I prefer to find a ceiling to this hate of mine
I can't win
I can't fight no more
I'm drowning
and I'm sick inside

a saving grace that all we know
let us pray
let us hold on

I can't breath
I can't win
I can't fight no more
I'm drowning
I'm sick inside

I can't breath...
