Leighton Meester, Heartstrings

Doing fine all on my own.
Cause I know now this was right for me.
Now you're feeling all alone.
I bet you're sorry now but thats what you wanted.
You took me for granted all the time.

Tie my heartstrings.
I tie my heartstrings off.
Tie my heartstrings.
I tie my heartstrings off.
Had to save my own self from all your evil games.
And now it ain't the same.
You will have no such luck to try to come inside.
It is to be denied.

Now you know Im doing well.
You try to catch me when Im finally free.
You only did this to yourself.
I bet you're sorry, but thats what you wanted.
You took me for granted all the time.

Tie my heartstrings.
I tie my heartstrings off.
Tie my heartstrings.
I tie my heartstrings off.
Had to save my own self from all your evil games.
And now it ain't the same.
You will have no such luck to try to come inside.
That is to be denied.
I was fighting, for you.
Now I just pity, pity the fool in you.

Had to save my heart, save it from all your evil games.
And now it ain't the same.
You will have no such luck to try to come inside.
That is to be denied.
Tie my heartstrings.
I tie my heartstrings off.
