Better Off, 9/11

We dried our eyes like nothing was wrong.
They tried to bring us down, but we didn`t fall,
We held our ground, through it all.
Here we stand, undivided
We stand united, stronger than before.
We know that we will survive,
It`s the innocent lives that we`re fighting for.
Here we stand, undivided
We stand united, stronger than before.
We know that we will survive,
It`s the innocent lives that we`re fighting for.
....It`s the innocent lives that we`re fighting for.
