Lisa Stansfield, Soul Deep

Baby don_t go
You_ve nearly shown everything you are to me
Darling don_t stray stay here with me
Because that_s how it ought to be
You_ve come this far
To see woho you are
See the love sinside yourself
Don_t be afraid I_m holding your hand
Just let the love run freely through me.
You_re so tangled up in love
Searching for you soul, searching for yourself
So tangled up in love
That you can_t see anything else
My oh my
Do I have to tell you how to live your life
Ooh baby dont you know, now that your mine
You_ve got so set your loving free
Tell me you see all we can be
That we can be magical
Throw off your pride and show me inside
Show me what you_re frightened of
You_re so tangled up in love
Searching for you soul, searching for yourself
So tangled up in love
That you can_t see anything else
My oh my
Do I have to tell you how to live you life
Ooh baby, don_t you know, now that your mine
You_ve got to set your loving free
