Bryan Ferry, Midnight Train

Midnight Train rolling down the track
Taking all my dreams, never coming back
The way you look, the way you hold me tight
Midnight Train rolling down the track
Taking all my dreams, never coming back
The way you look, the way you hold me tight
Midnight train where are you tonight?

Oh lonely, oh lonely me.

Midnight train so far down the line
Out of reach, always on my mind
Never know the meaning of your kiss
Midnight train must it end like this?
Midnight train going, going, gone
Beating of my heart is like a drum
Never know the meaning of your kiss

Midnight train must it end like this?
Midnight Train rolling down the track
Midnight train never coming back
Midnight train so far down the line
Midnight train always on my mind
