White men
Some wear silver
Some wear gold
Clean men
Some are new
Some are old

They bite
They smile
They can scare

Deciduous existence
Is not fair

Two men
One can see
One cannot
Blue men
I can't help
What I got

They sleep
They stare
They can cry

One thing's for certain
They can't lie

There's too many people that
I can't
There's too many people that
I can't
There's too many people that
I can't
