Hilary Duff, Working It Out

Somedays I start off dragging my feet Somedays I wanna fly Somedays it all makes sense to me
Somedays I just dont wanna know why

[Chorus]
Hey hey I'm not giving up, no gonna stand up and shout it oh no way im not slacking off or backing out or cracking up with doubt I'm workin it out

(oh cool thats awesome)

sometimes im just surrounded by friends sometimes we've never met sometimes i pray for something i need but hey you never know what you're gonna get

[Chorus]

its hard to be what you are and harder to be what you're not hard to know what you need to get, harder to know what you've got

[laughter]

hey hey i'm working it out now i'm working it out
