Endless Struggle, 20 Years pretentious fking assholes too cool for the scene 20 years since they lived hard old washed up and fking clean no sense of what's going on the only feeling is greed with a big label on there side and there ego's they must feed

[chorus:]
now you say your doing it doing for the kids but we see right through right through your fking lies live your life the way you want, but don't you preach to me I may get old and out of it, but my roots i'll always keep punk will never die no punk will never die

don't tell me that we are too young don't tell me how it used to be through the years it doesn't change you gotta keep rebellion on the streets don't tell me that punk is dead don't tell what it used to be if there's one thing that i know its that real punk will never die

[chorus:]
