Joe Jackson, Discipline

Discipline can stop my hunger
Discipline can quench my thirst
Discipline can make me stronger
If it doesn't kill me first I'm gonna pump it up gotta keep my body from falling apart
I gotta keep it up
Discipline can stop my hunger
Discipline can quench my thirst
Discipline can make me stronger
If it doesn't kill me first
I'm gonna tie you up gonna keep you begging for the key to my heart
I gotta keep it up
But tonight I'm gonna be my only slave put on my CD of the sound of waves and drift away
'til another day . . .
Discipline can stop my hunger
Discipline can quench my thirst
Discipline can make me stronger
If it doesn't kill me first
