

10,000 Maniacs, Beyond The Blue

[10,000 Maniacs]

[unreleased song on Euro and Australian MTT CDS]

I was thinking today
if you would remember you'd choose to remember what you left me out there in the cold

Days fading away
I see you so near
I hear your voice calling it calls me from these pages to you

Beyond the blue
so sudden too soon
secrets we knew

And I was thinking today if you would surrender you'd choose to surrender to feelings that you tried deserting

And if given the choice I'd still wait for the moment still wait for the moment when I could have a hero like you

Beyond the blue
so sudden too soon
secrets we knew

Days are fading away but I see you clear
I hear your voice calling
it calls me from these pages to you

Beyond the blue
so sudden too soon
secrets we knew
