Steve Perry, I Am

(Perry, Taylor, Brewster)

We were lost and alone
Somewhere so very new
Caught in the magic of love
And your forgiveness
Selfish and too blind to see
Love was our music and, oh

I am lost in a world of emptiness
I am learning to tell the truth

Somewhere, somebody new
We shared faith without truth
With only my words left I turn
To your forgiveness
Eyes in the darkness they cry
Tears are forever and, oh

I am lost in a world of emptiness
I am learning to tell the truth
So many roads to choose

I am lost in a world of emptiness
I am learning to tell the truth
I am lost in a world of emptiness
I am learning to tell the truth
So many roads to choose
