The Kelly Family, Ode to joy

I was a little baby
Nestled in my mothers womb
Just when I needed someone
She gave me my chance to live
You too were a little baby
Nestled in your mothers womb
Just when you were needing someone
She gave you your chance to live
Ref.:
Yes to life yes to our bads, too
Welcome each mother and her child
Trust in the sun, day, earth, and rain
To feed this weak hungry mouth
I was born for something grand
I know that deeply in my heart
That thrill I feed inside
Is why I sing my song of joy
Ref.:
You too were born for something grand
You know it in your heart
That thrill you fell inside immense from you a song of joy
