Blaze, Alive

I, I missed the meeting
Where you were appointed god
Preaching all your misguided views
Only you decide what is true
[Chorus:]
You just want me to die
Then you'll be satisfied
It's a disappointing day for you
Because I am alive... alive...
Me, I'm only human
So you think you can step on me
Feeding on all of those around
From your nothing throne
You're ruling nothing now
[Repeat chorus]
If you knew anything about real life
Then you would realise
You don't know anything about real life
To me that's no surprise
[Repeat verse 1]
You just want me to die
Then you'll be satisfied
It's a disappointing day for you
You know I'm still alive... alive...
You know I'm still alive... alive...
