

10 Years, Frailty

Discomposed as a whole
A kindred gift
Barely possessed
Struggles with lack of control
Meet our mistakes, and put on display
Stone me like a martyr
Making it much harder
Time just might beat out my will to overcome

Envious
A simple touch
All of this longing
Hollowed out longings of chimera

Bend and fold
Reform the shape
Force into place
Cant uphold
Devouring the author weakening their order

Envious
A simple touch
All of this longing
Hollowed out longings of chimera

Envious a simple touch
Hold tight
Why is this even questioned at all
Why is this even questioned at all

Turning around, crawling with vengeance,
Tempt me
Tearing around tearing it out
Frailty
Tearing around tearing it out
Frailty
