Anna Karwan, You and me love

You and me
breath together
I can see with your eyes
Speak your words, world around me
Listen why I dont know where I was going and Pretending I was free I dont know where I went for Wisdom you gave me here was everything forever here..
here inside
Together you and me you and me
Together you and me you and me you and me
Forever you and me you and me together...
Now youre gone
Lifes so different
Read my names and youre find me blue
Living long please remember I am here
I still need your power
When you told me how I will be desperate for Yes Im desperate for x2
I just want you to know
Obses make my heart broke
I know want you to break hope
And stay away
Together you and me you and me
Forever you and me you and me together..x3
You and me
Yes I want to fight for you
You need to have that true
I know theres nothing in your hope to stop me
I want your face like a thank
I wanna feel your heart break
Inside is right calling for your... stay
Together you and me you and me
Together you and me you and me
Forever you and me you and me together...
