There is an air about her
Something so square about her
That makes you care about her
More than you should

First that funny feeling then the warm comes on
A dull familiar lull before the storm comes on

The inconceivable

Becomes achievable
It's unbelievable
What you can do
When that funny feeling touches you
And she has got that funny feeling too

That funny feeling that puts such demands on you
Better never let her get her hands on you

The inconceivable
Becomes achievable
It's unbelievable
What you can do
Once that funny feeling touches you
And she has got that funny feeling too
