Cetera Peter, Perfect World

Cetera Peter
Another Perfect World
Perfect World
Little White House in a little old town Stuck in the middle of nowhere Stars shine bright when the sun goes down it's a perfect world as long as you're there

Count my blessings and save my prayers
Love waking up in the morning
Sunlight shining upon your hair
and you're lying next to me

Blue sky over fields of green I'm as happy as i've ever been One thing makes it all so clear
it's a perfect world as long as you're there

Count my blessings and save my prayers
Love waking up in the morning
Sunlight shining upon your hair
and you're lying next to me

Count my blessings and save my prayers
Love waking up every morning
The Sun is shining upon your hair when you're lying next to me and it's where I wanna be

Don't wanna live near the lights of the city I like it right where I am just to be part of a woman in love with the heart of a simple man [mhmhmhmm]
Count my blessings and save my prayers
love waking up in the morning
sunlight shining upon your hair

Count my blessings and save my prayers
love waking up in the morning
the sun is shining upon your hair
when you're lying next to me
And it's where I wanna be.

Ohoo when you're next to me
I'm exactly where I wanna be

Ohoo when you're next to me
I'm exactly where I wanna be

Ohoo when you're next to me
I'm exactly where I wanna be

Ohoo when you're next to me
I'm exactly where I wanna be

Ohoo when you're next to me
I'm exactly where I wanna be
