Sunrise Avenue, Bad

I've got this feeling
I'm lost somehow
Sailing along the seas of being holy
You make me alive
Driving on the wrong side
This must mean I'm really loosing my mind
Wer17;re in the moonlight
You take me again
You hold me like your own
I can't believe it
You make me begin
I slide in the game you're playing
This must mean I'm really loosing my mind
I just feel I'm really loosing my mind
This can't be right, this can't be fair
You make me do the dirty things I usually don't dare
This is not me and it makes me mad
You have that something on your skin you know
You always make me bad
You pull my head right
You got me again
The sparks in the air around you do it so fine
I've been taken
Into the tunnel of dark
This must mean I'm really loosing my mind
This must mean I'm really loosing my mind
This can't be right...
When I'm alone I am just waiting
And no one else could make it even go
When you're away I am just dreaming, dreaming about you
(Riku solo)
This can't be right...
You have that something on your skin you know
It always makes me bad
It always makes me...
It always makes me...
