Crucified, Unity

running fast
but running blind idle time in a wasting scene though you've looked you've never found peace amongst you, unity for simple reasons you divide you look without the eyes to see you lack the bond to truly bind Jesus Christ, the king of kings so many speeches - empty words show me... of what you speak, what you dream unity

I've got substance, you've got nothing
show me something better than my God (you can't!)
unity
show me unity

punks and skins, fighting each other brother cultures fighting on and on step into the lgiht of forgiveness and then by God stand and be strong if you see a cancer, cut it out quickly separate the wheat from the chalf do not hesitate, if you'd only ask he'd show you the way you'd see the possibility of peace to be made fight! this is your chance fight! you've got the gift, use it! change! you know it's true strength! it's there, take it! now! it's there for you.

stop living in a dream world of peace, love, and harmony (anarchy?...) where everybody just decides to finally get along it's plain, it's simple, you've tried everything else
God is the answer to become as one
