Billie Eilish, Fingers Crossed

In the end
When they’re all gone
When the world is silent
And the day all gone
Just you and I
We’ll be alive
We’ll make it on our own

‘Cause everybody listens till they don’t
And everybody wants to think they’ve won
‘Cause everybody makes till they don’t
And everybody seems to think they’ve won
They won, they won, they won

Maybe I am still alive, but my heart’s beating slow
Baby, tell me I got to know
Are you okay? You seem too far gone
And further, standing there
All alone

‘Cause everybody listens till they don’t
And everybody wants to think they’ve won
‘Cause everybody makes till they don’t
And everybody seems to think they’ve won
They won, they won, they won
Aah aah

The best of me, the best of me is you
The best of me, the best of me was you
