A Life Once Lost, The Wanderer

A Life Once Lost
Iron Gag
The Wanderer
First in line
To cash in on what I created
Last in line
To beat the dead horse
I try and try
But who cares at the end of the day
I figure that you only wanted to make me feel this way

So that you can feel better about yourself
I will dance across the floor

I'm pointing fingers and laughing
Because you can't destroy me

Second best
I had nothing more to give
Is it safe to say that none of this mattered anyway

So that you can feel better about yourself
I will dance across the floor

I'm pointing fingers and laughing
Because you can't destroy me

Now I've become the wanderer
Forced to become a man
Who is searching for something real to feel

So that you can feel better about yourself
I will dance across the floor

I'm pointing fingers and laughing
Because you can't destroy me

Now I've become the wanderer
