Dada, Goodbye

I know you'll always be inside me
No matter where I go
So go and tell me what's on your mind

It seems like part of you's already gone
The rest is fading fast
I can feel the wind come to take you away

So look into my eyes and say
The words to me

"Goodbye", I know it's hard to say
"Goodbye", if there's no other way
The truth will only set you free, so please
Don't cry, it won't make it well
Don't lie, I can always tell
It's time for you to say the word I fear
No tears, "goodbye"

Is there anyone I could have been
To make you feel that way?
Someone to turn into for one last night
Two black birds caught inside of a church
No one to set them free
Except for a window that they'll never find

So look into my eyes and say
The words to me

"Goodbye", I know it's hard to say
"Goodbye", if there's no other way
The truth will only set you free, so please
Don't cry, it won't make it well
Don't lie, I can always tell
It's time for you to say the word I fear
No tears, "goodbye"

So look into my eyes and say
The words to me

"Goodbye", I know it's hard to say
"Goodbye", if there's no other way
The truth will only set you free, so please
Don't cry, it won't make it well
Don't lie, I can always tell
It's time for you to say the word I fear
No tears, "goodbye"

The word I fear
"Goodbye"
Through tears (through tears)
"Goodbye"
