Absurd Minds, Body

It is the centre figure in the dreaming of the world
There is no dream about it
It doesn't exist without the dream
In which it acts as if it were a person to be seen

And they believe born in to the world outside lives a little while and dies
Losing the form because it's worn
Flesh decomposes
It won't believe there was a time when it knew nothing of itself, nothing of itself
Born into the world outside lives al little while and dies

The dreaming of the world takes many forms
Because the body seeks in many ways to prove it is real
Searching for the truth takes many forms because the body feels in many ways this world is not rea
Find yourself the dream is but on purpose taught in many ways
but the son of god remembered not to laugh, he thinks he is the dream and not the dreamer

Pain demonstrates it must be real
It is a loud and . voice, compelling your attention
Its purpose is the same as pleasure
To devote all means

To make the body real
It's the law that you can feel
Born in to the world outside lives a little while and dies
Losing the form because it's worn

Flesh decomposes
It won't believe there was a time when it knew nothing of itself, nothing of itself
Born into the world outside lives al little while and dies
The dreaming of the world takes many forms

Because the body seeks in many ways to prove it is real
Searching for the truth takes many forms because the body feels in many ways this world is not rea
Find yourself the dream is but on purpose taught in many ways
but the son of god remembered not to laugh, he thinks he is the dream and not the dreamer
