Blue System, If I Will Rule The World

Baby I swear you
Baby I would die
I would run to you

We're leaving New York to the rain
East of the summer, see you again
I love you baby, where's deep emotion
Oh, where the mountain meet the sky
West of the moon, I could not hide
Love you lady, where's deep devotion

I love you every night, I love you every day
This is a deep love odyssee

If I will rule the world, I promise you the best of me
If I will rule the world, you ever get the best for free
For every heart, every soul
Pray in my bed, I'm losing control

I'm leaving you in S.O.S.
Turn of your dream, and confess
Love me baby, see my emotion
Or is it something that I should know
Closer to heaven, we will go
Be my lady, wear sweet devotion
