Alexz Johnson, Here We Go Again

[Alexz]
Am I, heading for disaster?
Am I, forgetting what I know?
Or am I afraid instead of letting go?
[Luke]
Are we, dangerous together?
Are we, pretending to be sure?
Are we walking into that storm?
[Both]
Here we go again
Back to where we never been
Take it from the end
Start over
And make it better
Here we go again
[Luke]
Is this what we always wanted?
Is this a beautiful mistake?
Is this the way two hearts are bound to break?
[Alexz]
Show me a part of you that's different
Show me that you know what I need
Give me something we can believe in [Both]
Here we go again
Back to where we never been
Take it from the end
Start over
And make it better
Here we go again
[Alexz]
Cos' I'm older
And I'm wiser
And I'm ready to hold on
For something deeper
Something stronger
I'm ready for you
Here we go again
Back to where we never been
Take it from the end
[Both]
Here we go again
Back to where we never been
Take it from the end
Start over
And make it better
Here we go again
Back to where we never been
Here we go again
Start over
And make it better
Here we go again
