Amity Dry, Every Road

Once again, I wonder what I'm waiting for?
Once again, I'm staring at the phone
I'm trying to find the words to tell you how I miss you
How it's changed since you've been gone
And you might not understand if you've never loved a man
So deep and so strong that you'll keep on holding on
To that road the leads me back to you every time
To the voice that's telling me to leave it all behind
My heart's still beating to the rhythm of your love
And nothing else can be enough, no no
I can't remember now what could have been so bad
Whatever made me let you go
And I know that time has made me blind to the reasons
It's a sugar coated memory, that I know

And you might not understand if you've never loved a man
So deep and so strong that you'll keep on holding on
Once again I wonder, why I love you still?
Why I just can't let go of the past?
'Cause in my heart, I know that it was over long ago
But being without you is just too hard
So don't try to understand 'cause I don't think I even can
Why it's so deep and so true, the way I'm loving you
Once again I wonder, why I love you still?
Why I just can't let go of the past?
'Cause in my heart, I know that it was over long ago
But being without you is just too hard
