Echobelly, Aloha Lolita

They lie on the sofa,
He's got his hand inside her dress,
He says he adores her,
The word is she's crazy,
She likes the taste between her legs,
They say she's a goer,
The truth is it bores her,
She's bored, she's bored beyond belief,
There's nothing to do here,
She's been there,
She's done it,
She's seen it all,
It's taken place inside her head,
When no one can go there,
She's saving up for something,
She says she's up for sale.
Running in the shadows,
From the voices and the pain,
Nothing in the world is gonna save you,
Standing on the corner,
On the sidewalk,
On the game,
I can't ever reach you.
Aloha lolita I've got to have you, have you,
He wrote in his letter,
Another admirer who had his way, a way with words,
He sleeps with her picture,
She's saving up for something,
She says she's up for sale.
Running in the shadows,
From the voices and the pain,
Nothing in the world is gonna save you,
Standing on the corner,
On the sidewalk,
On the game,
I can't ever reach you,
Where would you go now?,
If I could take you with me,
Run from this world and find another,
Come run another with me.
