Amy Studt, Paper Made Men

Take a needle push it in starting with the eye.
For ever time they wandered and every time they lied.
Take a needle push it stick it through the hands,
For every time the smoothered me for failing your demands.
That Voodoo you do, comes back threefold on you
That voodoo you do, my paper-made man. (my paper made man)
Take a needle push it in press through his tongue,
For ever time he told me that he loved me and whispered me i'm done.
That Voodoo you do, comes back threefold on you
That Voodoo you do, oh no oh no oh no (comes back threefold on you)
That Voodoo you do, comes back threefold on you
That voodoo you do, my paper-made man. (my paper made man)
ee ai ai oh etc
Take a need it push it in press it through his heart,
That Voodoo you do, comes back threefold on you
That Voodoo you do, oh no
That Voodoo you do, comes back threefold on you
That voodoo you do, my paper-made man.
