Factory 81, 3 O'Clock Love Letter

You are precious make me special I am ugly lost in your beauty.
All around me no one can love me I am sorry, I am so dirty.

I break falling further each day.
Make these bad dreams go away.
You touch me, feel you touching me.
I break, make it go away again.

All around me.
Why won't you trust me?
I am dirty from where they touch me.

I break falling further each day.
Make these bad dreams go away.
You touch me, feel you touching me.
I break, make it go away again.

All I want is someone to love me,
but who can ever love a freak.
Everyday it's all the same but I live this.
I don't know why but I keep on giving.
I am a child trapped in your adult world.
No one can love me.
Call me a little girl.

Oh and you push me.
You make me so loving.
You push me. I'm nothing.
So why won't you trust me.

I break falling further each day.
Make these bad dreams go away.
You touch me, feel you touching me.
I break, make it go away again.

You are precious make me special,
I am dirty from where they touched me.
