Anita Baker, Your're The Best Thing Yet

Chorus:
You're the best thing yet
To ever com into my life

An understanding hand
When the world calls me grand
You protected my heart
Right from the start
Sensitive vibes are strong and true
The very best I've always shared
With you

And if I should fall
Or if I'm standing tall
I can see you standing there
Always willing to share
Each and every part of me
And you see things I never, never see

(Chorus 2x)

Deep down in my mind, my mind
I wonder at the blessing that I could find
Someone as loving as you
Could bring into my life this feeling
So right, and so true
Like the flowing waters
Of a silver stream
And like the misty vision
In a midnight dream
Such a wonder of life to me
So rare is found such a reason to be

(Chorus 2x)

Like the flowing waters
Of a silver stream
And like the misty vision
In a midnight dream
Such a wonder of life to me
So rare is found
Such a reason to be

(Chorus 2x)

You're so wonderful
You're so beautiful
You're the best thing yet
To ever come into my life

You're so wonderful
You're so beautiful
You're the best thing yet
To ever come into my life
