Arcwelder, Remember To Forget

(music/words w. graber & s. macdonald)
Believe the unbelievable - feel what it's like
Thinking the unthinkable - feel what is life
I'm doing the impossible - remember to forget
Deny the undeniable - I can't remember yet

So sing a little pop song - then everybody loves you
Just sing a little pop song - then everybody loves you

See the unforeseeable - and see that it's a choice
Perceive the unperceivable - my vision and my voice
Explain the unexplainable - to those who never feel Convincing the invincible - is insight not for real

So sing a little pop song - then everybody loves you
Just sing a little pop song - then everybody loves you
So live a little pop life - real or pretend
Sing a little pop song - like it will never end
