Arid, I Hear Voices

I hear voices, can?t be sane
Messing with my head again
From the corners of my mind
Telling me to go and find
Feel the rhythm, feel the flow
Yeah we?ll have to take it slow
I hear voices telling me
I?m not where I long to be
I want to know
Tell me I need to know
Will you hold me, can you heal
Will you mend the pain I feel
Can you slip me something true
Anything to hold on to
Feel the rhythm, feel the flow
As it tells you where to go
I hear voices telling me
I?m not where I long to be
I want to know
Tell me now
This heavy heart hangs low
It?s all you need to know oh
A friend to the heart
Be it all you can find
Tell me now
Does it show
I need to know
I hear voices blue as rain
Messing with my head again
I hear voices, it must be true
All the things they say about you
And I still can?t get my head around you
And I still can?t get my head around you
And I still can?t get my head around you
And I, I still can?t get my head around you
I still can?t get my head around you
And I still can?t get my head around you
