Destroy!, Misery

The world is just a game played by you
Everyone can be twisted to bow before you
* I am the master and your are the slave *
Your ego-bound power trip fills me with rage

Why won´t you ever let me be
All you ever do is shit on me
The more you tell me what to do
The more I´m going to say * Fuck You! *

To use and abuse is the way of the game
Blinded by glory and dillusions of fame
Trampling those around you: Means to an end
I´m exposing your fucked up ways which you
Can´t defend

I won´t be ripped apart by your cut-downs
The situation is changed I´m ending it right now
Where once was friendship now there is pain
Now it´s my turn to attack and expose your shame

It´s all over now: Been brought to an end
Too blind to see anything, you won´t be relent
A new circle of followers to bend to your will Another set of * friends * to make their lives a living hell.
