Dezire, Go go

Youre scared of fact youll never,
Youll never take it all
Youre cheating me as ever
I fall fall
Your eyes are getting sadder
Pretending youre alone
Dont fool yourself, youll better
Just go go
I know you but it seems its not my thing
I was true saying you are not my friend
I really know
But I aint fight you
I really know
But I dont care about you
I know it all when I take in is truth
I know it all
Still guess about you
Youre satified you stole it
How could you be so calm?
Youre not a friend you show it
Just wrong wrong
And everything you wanted
Was falling like a wall
Its easy just to blow it
And go go
I know you but it seems its not my thing
I was true saying you are not my friend
I really know
But I aint fight you
I really know
But I dont care about you
I know it all when I take in is truth
I know it all
Still guess about you
You gotta sleep forever
You gotta disappear
I wish you could be further, so far, not near
You gotta sleep forever
Why are you standing here
Though now youre gone away, away
I really know
But I aint fight you
I really know
But I dont care about you
I know it all when I take in is truth
I know it all
Still guess about you
