Imogen Heap, Getting Scared

turn your ugly face are you so surprised to see me yeah I was your little childhood playground toy and if I remember yeah if I do remember rightly I said the tables would be turned around boy who's getting scared now tell me, tell me how does it feel it feels so good from where I'm standing the only times in my life the sun was meant to shine for me you made it pour down, pour down with tears of rain dug my pride with a knife encaged by your obsession with me time for some mental torture and screams of justified pain so ya gonna chase me now boy yeah ya gonna corner me now boy you think ya gonna threaten me now boy somehow I don't think so yeah ya gonna stamp me down now boy yeah ya gonna crush me down now boy

you think ya gonna threaten me now boy well somehow I don't think so

who's getting scared now,

yeah you're getting scared now, piggy, go ahead and squeal
it sounds so nice from where I'm standing.

tell me, tell me how does it feel

yeah you're getting scared now, piggy,
go ahead and squeal
from where I'm standing who's getting scared?
