Drake Bell, In The End

Wake up
It's time to get your things together
And drive away
Breathe out
You feel today it treats you better
That's what they say

Another day
Gone without a say
But it's okay
If you turn away
And feel the memories bringin' you down

And in the end
Are you stronger
Do you no longer
Need to recover
And where have you been
Since it's been over
Over my shoulder
Under my skin
Will you ever return again...
