Jimmy's Chicken Shack, Spiderweb

Time to scale again the wall eight feet move two inches tall I watch in mirth as she catches prey I see her work here everyday another web in my path that spider lays I think there there's nothing to it think I'm gonna walk right through it don't ever give up on yourself

don't ever give up on yourself
won't ever give up i'm young

I've seemed to done it once again a spiderweb gets stuck all in my head I walk through it everyday it's just the path I lay if she could catch me in her web I wonder how many days she would be fed on the flesh that clings to these lanky bones

Don't ever give up on yourself (x4)

(H1)
Don't ever give up on yourself
Cause I wont ever give up on myself
The circle of humanity is a 3-60 That begins and ends with me and my endless interactions With separate entities that make up my family So what we need is that Aphrodisiac to protect us from the webs that hang low to hunt are heads We're not going out like that this time
This time were going to walk right through it

Throw your hands in the air if you know what this is about see I snatch mics and cross boundaries while the crowd be jumping around and wilding and getting rowdy time to break free of spiderwebs that surround me while I chase my density the beats bring out the best in me If the spider catches me then that will be the death of me be the sole controller of your mind you can't escape it power is only passed to those who dare to take it from the spiderweb
