Bloom 06, The Crash

'''Bloom 06 - The Crash'''

I Flew
straight up to heaven
and I thought that we could never hit the ground but I was blind cause what I saw was just my fantasy

I screamed
but silence came out
no more air
to keep us floating off the ground and so now
now that it's over
tell me who has won

The airplane hit the ground
it's too late for saving it now
but I showed you the way
the way to avoid the crash
to avoid the crash.
The airplane hit the ground
it's too late for saving it now
the way to avoid the crash
to avoid the crash.

You stared
while we were falling
cause you thought that I would never have the guts to crash down all that I thought was our reality

Now you're back
hunting forgiveness
for all that is closing all the opened doors I was a toy
that you got sick of
and now you cry because it's broke?

to avoid the crash.
the way to avoid the crash
to avoid the crash.

to avoid the crash.
