Seven forty five another sleepless night stumble out of bed and get ready for the fight.
Sweater on your back, glasses on your face minute after minute you could miss the daily race.

People say youre clumsy, people say youre dumb
They say lots of things that have taught you to be numb.
Everything is flat, everything is dull hour after hour waiting for another bell, and then the moment comes to rise erasing all the pain inside so everyone around can see you only want to live your dreams.

Youre amazing when you walk
Amazing when you talk
Amazing when you sleep and amazing when you work
Amazing when you trip
Amazing when you scream
Your amazing like the amazing things you dream

Youre amazing when you walk
Amazing when you talk
Amazing when you sleep and amazing when you work
Amazing when you trip
Amazing when you scream
Your amazing like the amazing things you dream
