Jon Bon Jovi, Damned

I'm lying here beside you
In someone else's bed
Knowing what were doing's wrong
But better left unsaid
Your breathing sounds like screaming, it's all that I can stand
His ring is on your finger, but my heart is in your hands
Damned if you love me - Damned if you don't
It's getting harder holding on, but I can't let you go
Damned if you don't need me, Damned if you do
God , I wish it wasn't me standing in these shoes
Damned, Damned
Door slams like a shotgun, Jumping to your feet
It's just the wind thats blowing through the secrets that we keep
Made me want to want you, God knows I need to need you
By the time this love is over, I'll be sleeping on the streets
Damned if you love me - Damned if you don't
It's getting harder holding on, but I can't let you go
Damned if you don't need me, Damned if you do
God , I wish it wasn't me standing in these shoes
Why won't you talk to me ?  Because I'm too blind to see
Why won't you look at me ?  Because I'm afraid to breathe
What do you want from me ?  All that I can stand
The lies are on my tongue and I can't turn back I know
My soul is Damned
Don't worry
I ain't gonna call you when you say my name
And if you see me on the street, don't wave just walk away
Our lives are getting twisted, let's keep our stories straight
The more that I resist it, my temptation turns to fate
Damned if you love me - Damned if you don't
It's getting harder holding on, but I can't let you go
Damned if you don't need me, Damned if you do
God , I wish it wasn't me standing in these shoes
Damned , Damned
Damned if you love me - Damned if you don't
It's getting harder holding on, but I can't let you go
Damned if you don't need me, Damned if you do
God , I wish it wasn't me standing in these shoes
Damned , Damned
