Kylie Minogue, Lose Control

Round like a circle
Caught up in a spiral
You make me feel like a wheel
I'm running off the cable
But the cable seems so far now
And the wheel is turning faster
And I know I'll get there somehow
Cuz I feel like I'm gonna

You make me lose control (control)
You make me lose control (control)

Twisting, turning
I have lost my soul
Cuz now I'm yearning
I just want it all
Someone's calling
I have lost control
And the tide is turning

I just want it all, want it all

So infective
The pills that I'm taking
But nothings gonna stop me
Cuz I want it so much, so much, so much

You make me lose control (control)
You make me lose control (control)

Twisting, turning
I have lost my soul
Cuz now I'm yearning
I just want it all
Someone's calling
I have lost control
And the tide is turning
I just want it all, want it all
