Lenny Kravitz, Here To Love

we must all united for we are one creation e must join the fight together we are strong

we must do what’s right in every situation
love each other’s lives as you would do your own just think twice before you cast your stone at someone’s soul it’s their life

o the choice is theirs and theirs alone we’re not here to judge we are here to love

there’s no room doe hate we are just human race we must rise above
we are here to love
there’s no time to waste anymore
