Lights Of Euphoria, White Wall

Shackled and bound by the beautiful noise
Shackled and bound by the sound of the voice
Shackled and bound by the blood in the vein
Shackled and bound by the wind and the rain

Evolution made us who we are
Revolution taught us what to think
Constitution, we know right from wrong
Retribution, time to fight the strong

[Us who we are]
[Us what to think]
[Right from wrong]
[To fight the strong]

Where is the dark room
Where is the white wall?
Where are the helping hands
When you're about to fall?
