Camper Van Beethoven, Axe Murderer Song

Why do lovers park down deserted lanes?
near haunted houses & homes for the insane.
Like a deformed son who was locked in a shed Later escaped when he chopped off their heads

Why do axe murderers only attack
when you're partially nude or you're taking a bath.
Tho there are times I feel softer than most somedays like yogurt & some days like toast

Sorority girls & fraternity boys Always deflowered. They're rich & they're spoiled.
So we never feel bad when Aunt Jenny, who's dead surprises them lying on her wedding bed.

When we're making love now, I feel so exposed Might you impale me or turn into those Creatures that feed on the flesh of the living
They hide in the corn between June & Thanksgiving

Why do axe murderers only attack
when you're partially nude or you're taking a bath.
