HOMENS (MEN)
Men
I like them all Brunettes, mulatos,
whities, blondes, blacks
But they have to be men
There are suckers, short men, fat men ungrateful men, smartasses, bald, hairy, gay,daring, feared.
There are many men
All men who praise themselves, impose respect know how to hear, talk, listen, have money, celular good in bed, and respect you.

If the man doesn't have have any of these virtues get away from him, take action because the true man he loves you, loves you treats you, treats you
with affection
with respect
and love
will give you great happiness throughout your life you'll be happy
that's the true man

Men
I like them all
Brunettes, mulatos,
whities, blondes, blacks
But they have to be men
