Nazareth, Juliet

See the girl with the changing faces
See the boy with the aching smile
Empty love's burned out traces
See them walking down midnight mile

Juliet look what love has done to you
Juliet love has made a fool of you

Watch them dancing on a frozen ocean
See them skate where the ice is thin
Empty love that's a cold emotion
See the tears falling in the rain

Juliet look what love has done to you
Juliet love has made a fool of you

Juliet look what love has done to you
Juliet love has made a fool of you

See the mist on the magic mountain
Watch the moon in a blood red sky
Empty love that's a dried up fountain
Never change and never ask him why

Juliet look what love has done to you
Juliet love has made a fool of you.
