City To City, The Road Ahead

The road ahead is empty
It's paved, with miles of the unknown
Whatever seems to be your destination
Take life the way it comes, take life the way it is

Horizon in the distance
So close, and yet so far away
You shouldn't be surprised when on arrival
The dream has flown away
And fear is not here to stay

The road ahead never gives away the promise
The road ahead is a highway or a dead-end stream
A dead-end stream

Raindrops on your windscreen
They fall from heaven or from hell
You drive into the light or into darkness
Incertainty as your guide

The road ahead never gives away the promise
The road ahead is a highway or a dead-end stream
The road ahead never answers any questions
And nothing is sure al the way, not even tomorrow
With miles of the unknown ahead of you

The road ahead is empty
It's paved, with miles of the unknown
Whatever seems to be your destination
Take life the way it comes, take life the way it is
