Ne-Yo(feat.Jay-Z), Call Me Crazy

(Jay-Z)
Compound
Rocafella
And Ne-yo's like young Michael, I'm quincy hov I hit a flow that broke the da vinci code I'm psycho everything I wrote go together so nice like a wedding make you wanna throw rice I'm schitzo cukoo clock dont tick so right sometimes 'til the chicks go noodles
I got screws loose
I pull words out the air like bluetooth I'm a sandwich short of a picnic ignorant thoughts come across you woulda swore that I written this but I didn't so maybe its good to be crazy is'nt it baby?
(Neyo:)
I wrote your name on my wall 3000 times last night you were on my mind
that's what you do to me
that's what you do
that's what you do to me
that's what you
Then one by one I went down the line just repeating it cause it makes me smile
that's what you do to me
that's what you do
that's what you
Some say that it's just strange to act that way but they don't understand they don't get it
you're so magnetic tho its pathetic to my simple eternity Just call me crazy inside Im deranged it dont matter to me call it what u want too I dont care and it doesn't make a differences as long as shes there Just call me crazy if loving you is crazy then crazy is what I be oooo crazy
oooo crazy
oooo just call me crazy Lately it seems like every song i write is about you ooh i love your style
that's what you do to me
that's what you do
that's what you
Baby And it just makes no sense oh how my swagger is crooked if you aint by my side
that's what you do to me
that's what you
call it what u want to I dont care
crazy is what I be
oooo crazy
oooo crazy
I talk to your picture (I write) ooh write your name in the mirror right after i love you
I need you so much
I cant get enough

Just call me crazy love me to is crazy crazy is what I be
oooo crazy
oooo crazy
